Important information update including the forthcoming Diocesan Canonical Inspection on Tuesday, 16th May 2017

Dear Parents

Just a quick message to let you know that St Edmund Campion School is going to have a Diocesan Canonical Inspection on Tuesday 16th May 2017. Three inspectors will be in school looking at the Catholic Life of the school, our Collective Worship and the RE curriculum. They may talk to you on the playground.

Please can you make sure that your children do not bring toys into school – this includes Fidget Spinners.

Congratulations to all our Year 6 who took their SATs this week. They were amazing! We are very proud of them all. We have been impressed with their concentration levels, their maturity and the support that they have shown each other. We obviously want every child to achieve the best they can but we are keen to share with the children that these assessments are just one measure of their abilities – the SATS do not measure how kind they are, what a good friend they are, how creative they are, how musical or sporty they are. We are proud of all their achievements! Well done Year 6!

Congratulations to all the children who made their First Holy Communion on Saturday at St Barnabas Cathedral. It was a wonderful occasion. The whole community was impressed by the children, how they read and sang.

I know that the children from St Anne's in Radcliffe will have a wonderful celebration on Sunday too. I look forward to sharing that special time with them.

At school we will be sharing a special Mass on Monday 15th May at 10.30am for all the First Holy Communion children – all their parents are welcome to attend the Mass. A professional photographer will be at school before Mass to take individual photographs. Children are to come to school in their First Holy Communion clothes and then change into their uniform after the Mass.

Best wishes
